

Freedom from Trafficking

Heartland Alliance provides free and confidential help to individuals who were not born in the United States but experienced human trafficking and exploitation in the U.S. Have you experienced any of these factors:

- forced to work and felt as though you could not quit
- Identification documents were taken by your employer
- you were not paid what you were promised
- you were lied to about the conditions in which you had to work
- your life or the life of those you love was threatened
